Lay Servant Ministry offers paths of understanding, growth, and training for leadership within the Church and the World as we focus on making disciples for Jesus Christ.

Saginaw Bay District Leadership Training for Church Leaders and Lay Servants

Sponsored by Saginaw Bay District Committee on Lay Servant Ministries

About These Courses

Although Lay Servant Ministries courses are intended to train lay people to be better leaders in their local church, anyone is eligible to take them. Many courses are ideal training for those who chair ministry committees in the local church. Even pastors can benefit from a quick refresher in some course areas. Those who do not wish to be recognized as lay servants and prefer to audit the courses do not need to obtain signatures from their pastor or their pastor/staff parish committee.

If participants have the support of their congregation and their pastor, applying to the District Committee and completing the basic course can result in recognition as a local church lay servant. It does not mean people must preach, nor does it guarantee that they will be given that opportunity. Such opportunities would be by mutual agreement with your pastor. Lay servants who have completed the basic course may, if affirmed by their congregation and their pastor, become certified lay servants by completing any one of the advanced courses and applying to the District Committee.

Have you ever thought, "I want to grow as a follower of Jesus and better understand how to use my gifts in ministry"? We are all called to proclaim God's wonder and works in the environments where we work, serve, learn, socialize, and engage in recreational activities. Answering the spiritual nudges to put faith in action and represent Christ in our daily lives presents unique opportunities to serve both God and neighbor. Your service can be as unique as you and your spiritual gifts.

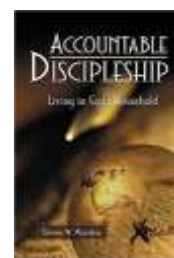

The basic course for Lay Speaking (Servant) Ministries guides you in discovering and developing your gifts of caring, leading, and communicating, and putting these to use. Sessions take you through thoughtful reflection on what makes a congregation an outpost for mission and transformation, and the role you can play—whether or not you think public speaking is one of your gifts.

REMINDER: Participants must purchase their own books.

Accountable Discipleship: Living in God's Household is a book about pastoral leadership in the Wesleyan tradition. Pastoral leadership is the ministry of caring for the household of God. Both laity and clergy are called to this ministry. Those who read and study this book will be invited to discover their own ministry as pastoral leaders. All who follow Jesus Christ and seek to obey his teachings to "love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind, and love your neighbor as yourself" have the potential to be pastoral leaders for their congregation. They are pastoral leaders because others see and experience the grace of Jesus Christ through their lives. They are spiritual, servant leaders who follow the example of Jesus. These are ordinary people. They are laity and clergy. They are people like you. A foundational piece for anyone involved in Accountable Discipleship ministries, this resource explores a systematic approach for undertaking and accepting the challenge of personal discipleship for life. It is designed for leaders of Accountable Discipleship ministries, members of Covenant Discipleship Groups, class leaders, and clergy.
